THURSDAY BARGAIN SALESemi-Annual Sale of Maker's Surplus Stock of High-Grade Shirts, worth up to $2 and $2.50

Twice a year we hold this special Sale of Men's Neglige Shirts—in January and July—and every man who has shared the advantages of former events knows just what to expect. The announcement of another sale will be sufficient to draw a great response.

Every season we get the entire surplus stock and samples of the most noted shirt maker in America. Our lips are sealed as to his identity—for he stipulated that his name should not be advertised in connection with the reduced price—to protect his other customers who must sell these identical shirts at the regular prices.

Many of the Shirts bear the labels of the leading stores throughout the country, such as John Wanamaker, A. B. Altman, Simpson & Crawford, Marshall Field, Rogers, Peet, Hackett, Carhart & Co., and others of equal prominence.

Every shirt in the collection is brand-new and fresh laundered. Materials are imported woven Scotch madras, white butchers' linen, striped madras, plain white madras and plain colored madras in a very wide range of smart and exclusive designs.

Light, medium, and dark grounds, with neat stripes, dots and figures, in all good washable colors, including the very stylish black and white and blue and white.

Plain and pleated bosoms; separate cuffs and cuffs attached.

Possessing every good point a shirt should have—patent cushion neckband, reinforced stays, perfect cut and faultless fitting. Sizes 14 to 18.
